IT FLOATS!

But that is not the only reason why you should use Ivory Soap for the bath.

Other reasons are: It lathers freely; rinses quickly and leaves the skin cool, clean and smooth as satin.

For all purposes that involve the use of a better-than-ordinary soap, Ivory Soap is without an equal. No "free" alkali in it; no coloring matter; no injurious ingredient of any kind.

MONT ROUGE.

W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., have the agency for the Mont Rouge wines of California. These are said to be superior in quality to many of the domestic wines, and the fact that they have been served in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, new and old, for fifteen years is a recommendation as to the quality of the product. They are invariably aged in the wood for six years before being bottled, and in consequence they have a bouquet that is violet in the nostrils of a connoisseur.

JOCKEY WOULD RACE AGAIN.

Jockey Ferreira, the irrepressible, if modest, man of things horsey, has bobbed up again with a statement to the effect that he hears that the owners of Adion and Lizzie Moore think their horses can beat his Lady Bernice. He is therefore willing to match his mare against either or both of the horses named for any purse, the race to be run preferably on Thanksgiving Day.

FISH HASH.

There was a commotion
Down under the sea;
The dog and the cat fish
Were scrappy's could be.
The dog barked with fury.
The cat scratched and spat;
Then climbed a sunk masthead
He couldn't get at.

Two swordfish they duelled,
Two skates became jagged;
A horn-pout blew loudly
And had to be gagged.
A school of wild porpoise
Got into a gale,
To which soon was added
A shark and a whale.

The shark was whaled badly,
And ran down the pike;
The hake grabbed the seal-pin,
And ran out of sight;
The frightened sea-robin
Let out a loud squeal;
"I think," croaked the toadfish,
"This ain't a squared eel."
—Breeder and Sportsman.
